Terms & Conditions 2019

Tri Society

Parties

The following 'Terms & Conditions' relate to the events listed within the appendix and are all organised and promoted by 'Tri Society'.

Terms

The above-named organisation from this point forward will be referred to as 'The Promoter'. All applicants both prospective and successful from this point forward will be referred to as 'The Applicant'.

From the moment that the above Promoter starts to organise an event, there is a considerable amount of work, expense and risk. Each event takes many hundreds of hours of forward planning, thousands of pounds of expense, as well as financial risk.

As with all companies incurring overheads such as premises, staff, marketing, equipment, insurance, websites, etc, financial planning is an integral part of event management and promotion. As such we endeavour to ensure that we can cover unexpected 'on costs' so as to provide a secure footing for all events promoted. The following 'Terms & Conditions' are set in place to ensure that we continue to provide applicants with safe and enjoyable events, year on year.

1: Conditions of Entry

By entering the events as made available on the www.trisociety.co.uk website, applicants are agreeing to abide by the following 'Terms & Conditions' as outlined below.

2: Confirmation of Entry

Satisfactory completion of a transaction through the online payment system confirms the applicant's place in the event.

3: Race Information

All necessary Race Information pertaining to the events are published on www.trisociety.co.uk. Please note that details of individual events as published on race specific entry forms, provisional race information or FAQ's are subject to change. Updated details of any alterations to Provisional Race Information initially issued will be made available on www.trisociety.co.uk no later than 5 days prior to the event date. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure they have accessed the relevant information relating to their event.

4: Competitor Withdrawal / Credit Policy

If for 'any reason' the applicant who has already successfully entered an event find themselves unable to race and wishes to withdraw from the event, the applicant must inform 'The Promoter' in writing. This should be done initially via e-mail to 'hello@trisociety.co.uk' with the subject title 'Withdrawal'.

Please note athletes CAN NOT withdraw via social media.

Applicants should receive a confirmation of their withdrawal within 5 working days.

Applicants who inform the events office in writing of their wish to withdraw before Monday 11th March, will receive a 'Race Credit' to the value of 50% of the original their entry fee.

Tri Society will hold your 'Race Credit' details for up to 24 months, once you know which event you wish to use your credit for contact the Tri Society office via 'hello@trisociety.co.uk' who will issue you with an electronic discount code linked to your chosen event. Your 'Race Credit' automatically expires after 24 months.

Please note that 'Race Credits' are not transferable between applicants.

5: Attempted Swapping of entries

Please note that the swapping of entries between applicants is strictly forbidden as it invalidates insurances undertaken by the Promoter to cover the event. The consequences of attempting such an undertaking by any applicant is so serious in jeopardising the continuation of events that any applicant found to have passed their entry to another applicant and any applicant found to have taken up that entry will both be banned for life from all future events organised by the Promoter.

6: Transfer of Entry and Deferral

Applicants are not permitted to transfer their entry to either another event or defer their entry to the following season. Applicants are instead, requested to follow the guidelines as outlined in the 'Competitor Withdrawal / Credit Policy' section as outlined above, using the Race Credit supplied where applicable to re-apply for another event.

7: Registration

Details of race registration times relating to specific events will be posted on confirmed race information. All applicants are required to attend registration within the times specified. Applicants who do not attend registration within these times will not be allowed to race, and will lose their right to a place in that event.

8: Photography

The promoters maintain the right to use images and photographs taken by their contracted photographers and employees at the event without informing the applicant. These images can be used for promotional purposes as undertaken by the promoters and their partners, which will cover a range of possible uses including advertising, press and media, printed information items, editorial coverage and any other promotion directly related to the promoters or their sponsors.

By entering the event, you are granting permission for your Name, Surname and Club/Team stated during the entry process to be displayed on the entries & results section of www.trisociety.co.uk

9: Prizes

Prizes at each event will be awarded in age categories as outlined in the Final Race Information documents, where possible applicants who are awarded a prize should attend the presentation in order to receive it.

10: Late Entries

If there are still places available after the closing date, applicants must include an additional fee to cover additional administration work as outlined on the entry system.

11: Event Changes

The above-named Promoter has the right to change any event for the reason of safety without prior notice.

12: Event Cancellation

If for reasons beyond the control of the Promoter, including an 'act of God' due to unforeseen, naturally occurring events that were unavoidable, the event which applicants have entered is cancelled or postponed, the Promoters will issue a full 'Race Credit' to the value of the original entry fee or transfer the applicant's entry to another event where requested. Alternatively, if an event is cancelled by the Promoter for non 'act of god' reasons, the Promoters will offer a full refund.

13: Right of refusal for entry

The Promoter maintains the right to refuse or revoke entry to any applicant, where they believe that accepting the entry could negatively affect the event, the promoting organisation, their sponsors, associates, staff or volunteers. This right of refusal extends to include applications where acceptance is considered by the promoters to be likely to infringe upon the enjoyment of any persons connected with the event, including staff, marshals, volunteers & other competitors.
